Civil Action No.

COMPLAINT

Plaintiffs Warner/Chappell Music, Inc., Warner-Tamerlane Publishing Corp., WB Music Corp., W.B.M. Music Corp., Warner/Chappell Music Publishing Ltd., Unichappell Music Inc., SONGS Music Publishing, LLC, Peermusic III, Ltd., Peertunes, Ltd., Songs of Peer, Ltd., Peer

International Corporation, Southern Music Publishing Co., Inc., Palm Valley Music, LLC, Folkways Music Publishers, Inc., Hollis Music, Inc., and Ludlow Music, Inc. (collectively, “Plaintiffs”), by their attorneys Loeb & Loeb LLP, as and for their complaint against Defendants Fullscreen Inc. (“Fullscreen”) and George Strompolos (“Strompolos”) (collectively, “Defendants”), allege as follows:

NATURE OF THE ACTION

1. This is an action for copyright infringement by Plaintiffs, the owners of some of the most popular musical compositions of all time, as well as many of today’s biggest hits.

2. Fullscreen is a multi-million dollar company engaged in the lucrative and emerging business of producing, marketing, and commercially exploiting audiovisual works over the Internet, primarily through the popular video sharing site www.youtube.com (“YouTube”). But unlike legitimate digital-age businesses that recognize the need to respect intellectual property rights, Fullscreen has engaged in widespread and willful copyright infringement by creating and disseminating videos synchronized with and reproducing Plaintiffs’ musical compositions, without license or authority.

3. Fullscreen is among the largest of the Internet’s rapidly growing crop of “multi-channel networks.” In essence, Fullscreen’s business is similar to that of a broadcast television network; Fullscreen produces, acquires and promotes audiovisual programming, disseminates this content over its programming channels, and generates revenues from advertising sales. As its founder George Strompolos has stated publicly, Fullscreen is the Internet equivalent of “Fox, plus ABC and NBC,” and the “next-gen Viacom.” Indeed, Fullscreen proudly claims that the videos disseminated over its network receive over 2.5 billion unique views each month.

4. Unlike the traditional (and lawfully operated) media companies to which it compares itself, however, Fullscreen and its founder, Strompolos, have willfully ignored their obligation to obtain licenses and pay royalties to exploit the vast majority of the musical content disseminated over Fullscreen's network, including musical compositions owned by Plaintiffs. Nevertheless, in order to ensure that their infringing content will be viewed and generate revenue on YouTube, Defendants have, upon information and belief, affirmatively misrepresented to YouTube that they have obtained necessary authorization from rights holders and would make royalty payments to music publishers such as Plaintiffs, when, in fact, Defendants have not.

5. Defendants' infringement has harmed and continues to harm the interests of Plaintiffs and the songwriters they represent. Accordingly, by this action, Plaintiffs seek permanent injunctive relief, as well as statutory damages for Defendants' past and present infringement or actual damages plus Defendants' ill-gotten profits.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

6. This is a civil action seeking damages and injunctive relief for copyright infringement under the Copyright Act, 17 U.S.C. § 101 et seq.

7. This Court has original subject matter jurisdiction over all claims in this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§1331 and 1338(a).

8. The Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendants because, among other things, Defendants do systematic and continuous business in New York and/or have performed acts directed at and causing harm in New York which give rise to this Complaint.

9. Venue is proper in this District pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1391 and 1400(a).

27. Upon information and belief, Defendant Strompolos is an individual residing in Los Angeles, California. Upon information and belief, Strompolos is the founder, chief executive officer and controlling shareholder of Fullscreen. Strompolos is directly responsible for, and has caused the acts and omissions by Fullscreen complained of herein.

FACTS RELEVANT TO ALL CLAIMS

Plaintiffs' Business and Ownership of the Musical Works

28. Plaintiff music publishers are a diverse group. They include large corporations that own tens of thousands of copyrights. Some are venerable, independent institutions, owned and operated by a single family for generations. Others are recently organized businesses with a small core of owners and operators. The one quality which all Plaintiffs share is that they own copyrighted musical works and seek to creatively license and authorize the use of those works in order to maximize revenues for their respective songwriters.

29. Annexed as Exhibit A hereto is a list of musical compositions that are owned and/or controlled by Plaintiffs (hereinafter, the “Musical Works”). Plaintiffs acquired the copyrights in and to these works pursuant to assignment from either the original author or a predecessor publisher. Each of the Musical Works has been duly registered in the United States Copyright Office. As and when appropriate, the copyrights in the Musical Works were renewed, and Plaintiffs or their respective predecessors in interest have secured all rights to the copyrights in these Musical Works during their respective renewal terms.

30. The copyrights in the Musical Works set forth in Exhibit A remain valid and subsisting, and have been owned and/or controlled by Plaintiffs at all relevant times.

31. Plaintiffs have complied with all other relevant requirements of the Copyright Act with respect to the Musical Works.

Defendants’ Infringement of the Musical Works

32. Defendants aggregate and disseminate audiovisual programming content and, in many cases, create and produce or participate in the creation and production of this content.

33. Fullscreen’s business is centered on a large network of channels distributed over the Internet where viewers receive audiovisual programming catered to their specific tastes.

34. Many of Fullscreen’s channels are devoted exclusively to music videos and other music-related content. For example, one of its channels, Fullscreen Artist Mix (available at <http://www.youtube.com/user/FullscreenArtistMix>), acts as an online content portal to showcase many of Fullscreen's other music-oriented channels, including those that utilize and infringe the Musical Works.

35. According to Defendants, there are more than 200 million regular subscribers to Fullscreen's network channels. These subscribers are the viewers who most frequently watch Fullscreen's programming, and receive regular e-mail alerts when new content becomes available on a channel to which that viewer has subscribed. However, anyone with access to the Internet, including non-subscribers, can also view content on Fullscreen's YouTube channels at any time. According to Fullscreen's website (fullscreen.net), the videos disseminated over Fullscreen's network receive over 2.5 billion unique views each month.

36. Leveraging this vast YouTube network and enormous audience base, Fullscreen has disseminated infringing videos that utilize each of the Musical Works set forth in Exhibit A. Annexed as Exhibit B hereto is a representative list of hundreds of videos which incorporate the Musical Works that Defendants have disseminated over the Fullscreen network. Upon information and belief, there are hundreds, if not thousands, of additional videos disseminated over Fullscreen's network that infringe the Musical Works.

37. Many of the infringing videos contain unauthorized "cover" renditions of the Musical Works. In others, Defendants' videos reproduce popular phonorecords embodying the Musical Works that others, such as record labels, previously created under a valid license. Plaintiffs have neither licensed nor authorized Defendants to engage in any of the foregoing uses.

38. Upon information and belief, in many cases, Defendants have also been directly involved in the production of the infringing videos that utilize Plaintiffs' Musical Works, in some cases with the involvement of additional co-producers. Upon information and belief, Fullscreen engages in the production of these videos by filming, scripting, directing, editing, providing studio space and equipment for, funding, or otherwise participating in and facilitating their creation and production.

39. In other instances, the videos are produced by individuals who have joined Fullscreen's network and who, together with Fullscreen, are directly liable for infringing Plaintiffs' Musical Works. Even in those cases where Fullscreen is not directly involved in production, it has nonetheless provided a variety of distribution, marketing and promotional services in connection with their infringing videos.

40. In addition to their direct infringement of Plaintiffs' Musical Works, Defendants have encouraged, contributed to, induced and facilitated the direct infringement of Plaintiffs' Musical Works by other producers and co-producers. Among other things, Defendants: (i) produce, and facilitate and supervise the production of, the infringing music videos and phonorecords; (ii) make the infringing works available to the public through Fullscreen's vast distribution network on YouTube; (iii) fund the creation of the infringing music videos; (iv) pay their co-producers for producing and performing in these videos, and share advertising revenue with them; and/or (v) promote and market the infringing music videos to the public, including through cross-channel advertising, in order to increase the number of views and downloads of the infringing videos and, ultimately, to increase Defendants' revenues and profits.

41. In many instances, Defendants and their co-producers have also sold the unauthorized phonorecords contained in their infringing videos through other digital distribution platforms, such as Apple's iTunes.

42. Upon information and belief, Strompolos has personally orchestrated, controlled, and participated in the unauthorized use of Plaintiffs' Musical Works. Among other things, Strompolos: (i) has acted as Fullscreen's ultimate decision-maker and possessed policy-making authority and control over Fullscreen; (ii) has exercised direct supervisory responsibility over Fullscreen's employees; (iii) was aware of, personally oversaw, directed and authorized the actions complained of herein; and (iv) has profited greatly as a direct result of Fullscreen's infringing activities.

43. Fullscreen has entered into partnership agreements with YouTube and others, which allows YouTube to sell advertising for its programming and network.

44. As a condition to entering into such partnership agreements, upon information and belief, Fullscreen represents and warrants that it has licensed or otherwise has full authority to use and disseminate all copyrighted material, including copyrighted musical compositions reproduced on such programming. Moreover, upon information and belief, Fullscreen claims full and rightful ownership over the entirety of the content included in the infringing videos disseminated on its network, when, in fact, it has no ownership interest in the Musical Works contained in these videos.

45. Fullscreen receives advertising revenue when the videos containing the Musical Works are played on Fullscreen's YouTube channels, and each time a YouTube user clicks on an advertisement that YouTube has placed on the webpage where the infringing videos are played.

46. Upon information and belief, Fullscreen also receives advertising revenues from the display and performance of the infringing videos on third-party websites other than YouTube, where Fullscreen's YouTube videos are embedded or linked.

47. Upon information and belief, Fullscreen touts the metrics relating to its enormous subscriber base and the number of YouTube users' views of its videos to attract higher advertising rates and revenues from YouTube and other third-party advertisers. Defendants' unauthorized use and dissemination of Plaintiffs' popular Musical Works serve to attract new subscribers and unique visits to Fullscreen's network, thereby increasing the rates and revenues that Fullscreen is able to generate over all of its network channels.

48. Upon information and belief, Defendants have also received revenue from the sales of Plaintiffs' Musical Works over other digital distribution platforms, including Apple's iTunes.

49. Upon information and belief, Defendants have attracted substantial third-party investments in Fullscreen due to the substantial revenues that it receives, including those gained through the unauthorized use and dissemination of the Musical Works. Recently, a group of investors led by a large media company invested approximately $30 million in Fullscreen, setting the valuation of the company at approximately $110 million.

COUNT I
(Direct Copyright Infringement)

50. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference paragraphs 1-49 as if fully set forth herein.

51. Within three (3) years of the filing of this Complaint, Defendants have made, caused to be made, and purported to have the authority to make copies and derivative works of Plaintiffs' Musical Works, without the permission or consent of Plaintiffs, and continue to do so.

52. Within three (3) years of the filing of this Complaint, Defendants have publicly performed, distributed, and purported to have the authority to publicly perform and distribute Plaintiffs' Musical Works, without the permission or consent of Plaintiffs, and continue to do so. Defendants publicly perform and/or distribute the infringing works on, inter alia, Fullscreen's network of YouTube channels and over Apple's iTunes.

53. Defendants' past and continuing conduct constitutes direct infringement of Plaintiffs' copyrights.

54. Defendants' acts of infringement have been and are willful, intentional and purposeful, in disregard of and indifferent to the rights of Plaintiffs.

55. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' infringement of Plaintiffs' copyrights and exclusive rights under copyright, Plaintiffs are entitled to the maximum statutory damages pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 504(c). Alternatively, at Plaintiffs' election, pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 504(b), Plaintiffs are entitled to their actual damages plus Defendants' profits from infringement in an amount to be proven at trial.

56. Plaintiffs are entitled to their costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees, pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 505.

57. Defendants' infringing activities have caused Plaintiffs irreparable harm which cannot adequately be calculated or compensated solely by money damages and will continue to cause substantial irreparable harm to Plaintiffs unless further infringement by Defendants is enjoined.

COUNT II
(Contributory Copyright Infringement)

58. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference paragraphs 1-57 as if fully set forth herein.

59. As set forth above, the individuals who, with Defendants, create, produce and perform in Defendants' videos have infringed and are infringing Plaintiffs' exclusive rights in the Musical Works by reproducing, preparing derivative works of, publicly performing and distributing the Musical Works in unauthorized videos and sound recordings, and/or purporting to have the authority to do so.

60. Within three (3) years of the filing of this Complaint, Defendants have caused, enabled, induced, facilitated and materially contributed to each act of infringement by these individuals, and continue to do so.

61. Defendants have actual and constructive knowledge that these videos and sound recordings infringe Plaintiffs' Musical Works and that Plaintiffs' exclusive rights to reproduce, prepare derivative works of, publicly perform and distribute the Musical Works have been and are being infringed.

62. Defendants' acts of infringement have been and are willful, intentional and purposeful, in disregard of and indifferent to the rights of Plaintiffs.

63. As a direct and proximate result of the infringement by Defendants of Plaintiffs' copyrights and exclusive rights under copyright, Plaintiffs are entitled to the maximum statutory damages pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 504(c). Alternatively, at Plaintiffs' election, pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 504(b), Plaintiffs are entitled to their actual damages plus Defendants' profits from infringement in an amount to be proven at trial.

64. Plaintiffs are entitled to their costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees, pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 505.

65. The infringing activities of Defendants have caused Plaintiffs irreparable harm which cannot adequately be calculated or compensated solely by money damages and will continue to cause substantial irreparable harm to Plaintiffs unless further infringement by Defendants is enjoined.

COUNT III
(Inducement of Copyright Infringement)

66. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference paragraphs 1-65 as if fully set forth herein.

67. As set forth above, the individuals who, with Defendants, create, produce and perform in Defendants' videos have infringed and are infringing Plaintiffs' exclusive rights in the Musical Works by reproducing, preparing derivative works of, publicly performing and distributing the Musical Works in unauthorized videos and sound recordings, and/or purporting to have the authority to do so.

68. Defendants are liable under the Copyright Act for inducing the infringing acts of these individual producers and performers. Defendants operate their multi-channel YouTube network with the object of promoting its use to infringe Plaintiffs' copyrights and unlawfully fostering copyright infringement over the Fullscreen network.

69. Defendants are fully aware that the Musical Works are copyrighted. Defendants are equally aware that videos disseminated, featured and promoted on Fullscreen's vast YouTube network infringe the Musical Works, and that the individuals who create and produce these videos utilize Fullscreen's multi-channel network and other services provided by Defendants for the express purpose of infringing the Musical Works utilized in their videos and monetizing their infringements. Defendants intend, encourage and induce these individual infringers to employ the Fullscreen network in this fashion, and pay them to do so.

70. Defendants' acts of infringement have been and are willful, intentional and purposeful, in disregard of and indifferent to the rights of Plaintiffs.

71. As a direct and proximate result of the infringement by Defendants of Plaintiffs' copyrights and exclusive rights under copyright, Plaintiffs are entitled to the maximum statutory damages pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 504(c). Alternatively, at Plaintiffs' election, pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 504(b), Plaintiffs are entitled to their actual damages plus Defendants' profits from infringement in an amount to be proven at trial.

72. Plaintiffs are entitled to their costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees, pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 505.

73. The infringing activities of Defendants have caused Plaintiffs irreparable harm which cannot adequately be calculated or compensated solely by money damages and will continue to cause substantial irreparable harm to Plaintiffs unless further infringement by Defendants is enjoined.

COUNT IV
(Vicarious Copyright Infringement)

74. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference paragraphs 1-73 as if fully set forth herein.

75. As set forth above, the individuals who, with Defendants, create, produce and perform in Defendants' videos have infringed and are infringing Plaintiffs' exclusive rights in the Musical Works by reproducing, preparing derivative works of, publicly performing and distributing the Musical Works in unauthorized videos and sound recordings, and/or purporting to have the authority to do so.

76. Defendants have the right and the ability to control, supervise and/or prevent the acts of infringement by these individuals.

77. Defendants significantly and directly benefit from the infringement of the Musical Works by deriving substantial advertising revenue directly from the infringing music videos.

78. Defendants' acts of infringement have been and are willful, intentional and purposeful, in disregard of and indifferent to the rights of Plaintiffs.

79. As a direct and proximate result of the infringement by Defendants of Plaintiffs' copyrights and exclusive rights under copyright, Plaintiffs are entitled to the maximum statutory damages pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 504(c). Alternatively, at Plaintiffs' election, pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 504(b), Plaintiffs are entitled to their actual damages plus Defendants' profits from infringement in an amount to be proven at trial.

80. Plaintiffs are entitled to their costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees, pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 505.

81. The infringing activities of Defendants have caused Plaintiffs irreparable harm which cannot adequately be calculated or compensated solely by money damages and will continue to cause substantial irreparable harm to Plaintiffs unless further infringement by Defendants is enjoined.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs respectfully pray for judgment against Defendants as follows:

- a) For temporary, preliminary and permanent injunctive relief restraining and enjoining Defendants, their agents, servants, officers, directors, employees, licensees, partners, successors and assigns, and all persons, firms, corporations or entities acting under their direction, authority or control, and all persons acting in concert or participation with any of them, from directly or indirectly reproducing, preparing derivative works of, publicly performing, distributing or otherwise infringing in any manner any of the Musical Works identified herein, and from causing, enabling, facilitating, encouraging, promoting, inducing or participating in any such infringements;
- b) For maximum statutory damages pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 504(c) or alternatively, at Plaintiffs' election, to actual damages plus Defendants' profits from their infringement of the Musical Works pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 504(b) in an amount to be proven at trial;
- c) For Plaintiffs' costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees, incurred in this action;
- d) For prejudgment and post-judgment interest;
- e) For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.
